

Short Description of the Presentation:

How do you respond when things don't go as planned? Most blame others but the positive thing to do is to exercise personal accountability. Personal accountability is not about changing others. It's about making a difference by changing ourselves. Learning to ask The Question Behind the Question will help eliminate blame, complaining and procrastination.

Repetition is the Motor of Learning

The Answers Are in the Questions We Ask Ourselves

We Are All Leaders

Definition of Leadership

Two Myths of Accountability

Picture of Personal Accountability

What Can "I" Do to Make a Difference?

